ENGLISH LAD'S GREAT RACE.

English Lad is probably the best Derby candidate for 1904 that has shown here this year. His decisive victory yesterday at Worth in the Chicago Ridge Handicap stamps him a two-year-old of high quality. He shouldered his crushing impost with rare courage and finished with one of those meteoric rushes that have characterized several of his best efforts here this year. The stake was at one mile, with $2,000 added, being worth $2,675 net to the winner. Of the eleven originally scheduled to start, Proceeds was the only horse to dodge the issue, S. S. Brown preferring to start Edward Hale, Proceeds' stable companion. Dick Bernard, on the strength of his recent good showing, was made a 2 to 1 favorite, English Lad being held as a close second choice and received heavy backing.

To a good start, Badger Girl assumed an easy command, with Dick Bernard second, Foresight third and English Lad bringing up the rear about twelve lengths back of the leader at the first quarter. Down the backstretch Badger Girl, running well within herself, maintained a lead of two lengths over Foresight on which Dick Bernard was lapped, with Shawana fourth. Here, Dominick began to ride English Lad strenuously and the colt moved up from tenth to sixth position. There was little change to the foregoing positions while rounding the far turn, but just after moving into the final quarter Badger Girl began to falter and Shawana moved up into second position, with Dick Bernard third and Foresight fourth. When well straightened out for the line Shawana passed Badger Girl and had a fair lead when a furlong out. In the meantime Dominick had been busy on English Lad and had passed a number of horses from the far turn run to the head of the stretch. He swung somewhat wide, purposely, with the colt, the object evidently being to avoid interference of any kind in the stretch run. When well straightened out for the line he began to ride English Lad with all the strength he could summon. The colt responded with increased speed and gradually closed up on Shawana, getting to her about fifty yards out and beating her under a determined ride by a half length going away. Shawana tired palpably when challenged by the winner, but had enough left to finish two lengths before Badger Girl for second place. The former swerved into the inside rail when a furlong out, cutting off Dick Bernard and Flo Bob, both of which were about to make their final effort. But for this mishap the two latter would undoubtedly have been closer up at the finish. The interference appeared to take all the heart out of Dick Bernard and his rider seeing he had no chance, gave him an easy ride in the last eighth. Flo Bob finished going fast and would have beaten Badger Girl for third place in a few more strides. Edward Hale and Glisten made up much ground in the final quarter. Foresight ran a good race for six furlongs and then faded away.

The fourth race, a handicap purse of $600, for all ages, at one and one-sixteenth miles, resulted in a big surprise, Huzzah, one of the neglected outsiders in the betting, finishing first. The race was supposed to be a gift for the favorite, Grand Opera, but third was the best he could do. Just before going to the post Auditor was the medium of heavy backing, but failed to finish inside the first three. Jack Demund set the pace down the backstretch, with Auditor second and Grand Opera third, the last named running much the easiest. Jack Demund maintained his advantage until just after turning into the final quarter, where he had enough and fell away beaten. At least five of the field appeared to have a good chance when a furlong out, but just after passing that point St. Tammany moved slightly to the front and appeared the winner. In the final sixteenth, however, Huzzah moved up fast on him and catching him in the last fifty yards outstayed him, winning by a head. St. Tammany finishing one length before Grand Opera for second place. The last named appeared to falter just a shade in the sharp last sixteenth struggle. Auditor ran a good race, responding gamely to punishment in the final eighth. Our Bessie, messed about in the final eighth, finished going fast when she got clear sailing. Ethylene tripped and fell when opposite the final eighth post. She was a keen contender at the time and Pollak was just about to make his final effort.

The opening race of the day, a dash of six furlongs for two-year-olds, went to Formaster, well ridden by R. Williams. Ananias, an outsider in the betting, led by a big margin until just before the head of the stretch had been reached, where he began to tire. Here King Ellsworth and Soldier of Fortune moved up on equal terms with him, only a second later to be joined by Formaster. It seemed in the final sixteenth as if King Ellsworth would win, but Williams worked hard on Formaster and got him up in time to win by a short half length, King Ellsworth finishing a head before Ananias for second place. The last-named hung on gamely all through the last quarter. Go Between ran by far the best race. Off flatfooted, he appeared to be in sore straits in the first quarter, but made up ground rapidly after that and finished resolutely. Trogon showed but little early speed.

The second race, a dash of one mile and one hundred yards for four-year-olds and over, went to Attila by courtesy of jockey Wilson, who rode Ivernia. Nellie Bawn led for the first half, where she retired in favor of Ivernia, the latter assuming what appeared an easy winning lead when a furlong out. In the final hundred yards, however, Wilson grew overconfident and careless and rallied Ivernia just a shade too late to offset Attila's determined challenge at the end, the latter nipping Ivernia on the post by a nose, with Louisville third three lengths back. The last-named ran prominently to the last eighth, where she tired.

The fifth race, a dash of five furlongs for three-year-olds and over, was marred somewhat by the crazy antics of Scorpio, which fretted and fumed about and delayed the start. Finally when the barrier went up he refused to break and was virtually left. Never Fret at once assumed a big command, leading by five lengths in the first quarter, but he tired in the final quarter, giving way to Stem Winder and Golden Rule. The latter finished with great speed, beating Stem Winder by a half length, the latter finishing one length before Louis Wagner for second place. Stem Winder, contrary to expectations, stood a stretch drive gamely and finished going fast. Louis Wagner ran a good race, finishing resolutely. Bummer simply could not concede the weight and was never a serious contender.

The last race, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds, went to Glenrice. Mary McCafferty, closely pressed by Courage, showed the way for the first six furlongs, when both retired and Christine A. took command. In the final eighth Glenrice closed up fast and had Christine A. thoroughly beaten when a sixteenth out, but had to be driven out herself to the limit to stall off Marlin's determined challenge in the last hundred yards. Glenrice won by a head, while Marlin finished three lengths before Christine A. for second place. Marlin would have undoubtedly won with a stronger finisher in the saddle. The start was poor, Begone and Jet being left standing still at the post.

Winner—Br. c, by G. W. Johnson—Floren (trained by J. A. Kyle).
Went to post at 2:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ahumada showed great speed, simply spreadeagled his field and won easily. Ilyria came from the rear in the long stretch run, finishing very fast. Girdle ran in improved form, but fell away slightly after a severe early stretch effort to overhaul the winner. Brigand got away poorly and when turning for home on the inside was anchored in the deep going and was frequently interfered with and at times pocketed. He is keyed up now for long distance races and today's route was too short for him. Muzio showed a fine burst of speed for five furlongs and finished fairly well up. Rightful, after being badly outrun, made up some ground in the last quarter.

Scratched—(42489) Gaviota, 120; (42243) Nine Spot, 112; 42486 Princess Tulane, 110.

Corrected weights—Brigand, 110.

Winner—Ch. h, by Rayon d'Or—Merry Nelly (trained by W. L. Oliver).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. All Gold dropped in directly behind the two leaders in the early running and, closing up like a cyclone when straightened for home, won off by himself. He was much the best and was in extra fine form. Nine Spot, after trailing the field for six furlongs, came through on the inside like a flash at the end, showing surprising form. Nevermore had a rough journey in the stretch and when with clear sailing in the final sixteenth finished with a rush and in another stride would have been second. Stroller was skillfully rated and sustained his speed in front in improved fashion, but is still sore and unfit to do his best on a dry track. Oclawaha finished well up. Monograph pulled up lame. Ernest Parham was badly interfered with in the stretch, but was unable to raise a respectable gallop in the early stages and ran a very bad race.

Scratched—(42441) Unmasked, 108; 42463<sup>2</sup> Meistersinger, 105; 35158 Gorey, 102; 42441 Conundrum, 102; 42514 Highlander, 102; 42487 St. Sever, 99; 42463 Potente, 94; 42261 Princess H., 94.

Winner—Ch. c, by The Commoner—Lady Eon (trained by J. Bauer).
Went to post at 2:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second driving. Harangue, suddenly improved, came out of the ruck in the final sixteenth and won going away with a rush. Lady Amelia put up a remarkably fast and game race at the weights and but for taking the inside deep going in her stretch run would probably have won. Crown Prince, on the outside, came from a long way back at the end and was going very fast. Pol Roger is a genuinely improved colt and was a prominent contender throughout. Agnes Brennan ran lapped on Lady Amelia to the last fifty yards, where she tired. Marjoram, away badly, closed a big gap and finished running faster than everything except the winner. Julia M. was also closing up fast at the end.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

P. P. Pomeroy, who is looking after the stake entries for the Hot Springs meeting, stated yesterday that horsemen are responding liberally and the stakes will be well filled.

Ananias, which finished third in the opening race, was backed from 100 to 1 to 60 to 1 at post time. The colt ran a good race and was only beaten about a length. He is still a bit green, as he has only lined up to the barrier three times, and as soon as he gets to understand what is expected of him, his owner thinks he will prove a useful racer.

A crowd congregated around the judges' stand after the victory of Glenrice and expected to see her bid up. No one bid on her, although she was entered to be sold for $800, and it was known that P. Dunne had claimed her for $1,200 the last time she started.

Scorpio acted fractiously at the post and delayed the start a long time, and when they finally were sent away he wheeled and was left.

Jet and Begone were left at the post in the closing race. The former was turned sideways and prevented Begone from breaking. The latter was backed from 100 to 1 to 50 at post time and was conceded a good chance.

Louisville was badly cut off while rounding the first turn and she in turn forced Benson Caldwell to pull up to keep from jumping on her.

Jack Demund displayed a great flight of speed in the early stages of his race, but lack of condition told at the end and he tired badly in the last quarter.

Jockey Dominick, who rode English Lad, stated after the running of the Chicago Ridge Handicap, that the colt is one of the hardest horses he ever rode to keep up in the early stages, but once he gets settled fully in his stride he becomes a free runner and covers a lot of ground with little exertion. To a question as to whether he thought English Lad could have run faster yesterday, Dominick replied: "Sure; he was only galloping at the end and could have run in 1:39 1/2."

C. R. Ellison shipped eleven horses to Latonia yesterday, where they will be raced until the close of the meeting and then be shipped to Memphis, Tenn., where they will be wintered.

Mose Goldblatt stated to the judges yesterday that Rainland did not show any ill effects from the severe whipping given him by Adams.

Ethylene, ridden by Pollak in the fourth race, fell while running in a contending position through the stretch. The mishap was a peculiar one and opinion differs as to the cause of her falling. Persons near the paddock thought that Ethylene had jumped on another horse, while those nearer to the finish thought that St. Tammany had struck her. Pollak escaped with a shaking up and rode Scorpio in the next race, but asked the judges for permission to be excused from riding Jet in the last race.

Horsemen were greatly impressed with the performance of English Lad in the stake race and a majority had no hesitancy in saying that he would train into a grand three-year-old and would prove one of next year's best racers. Old "Pa" Bradley, meeting trainer Phillips in the paddock after the race, said: "You have got a Derby horse, sure enough, and if I owned him I would enter him in the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps and run in them both."

Dick Bernard and Flo Bob were both greatly interfered with in the stretch run and had their chances practically destroyed. Flo Bob suffered the most and but for the interference would have been a sharp contender, as he was only beaten by a small margin for third place. His performance yesterday was a creditable one and leads to the belief that he has fully recovered from his illness and regained his midsummer form.

RICHLY BRED YEARLINGS

TO BE SOLD AT

St. Louis Fair Grounds

—ON—

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, '03.

Dr. A. C. Bernays will dispose of his entire racing stable and calls especial attention to the following extremely promising yearlings:

IMP. CHESTNUT FILLY, BY ST. HILARE—ZONA, BY DONCASTER.
BAY COLT, BY LONGSTREET—MA BELLE, BY CHARAXUS.
BAY COLT, BY HURON—TAFFETA, BY GREAT TOM.
BAY COLT, BY TITHONUS—TASSEL, BY GREAT TOM.
BROWN COLT, BY IMP. CRICHTON—SWEET CAKE.

The Zona filly is by a son of St. Simon; her dam was by the Derby winner, Doncaster; her grand dam by the famous Buccaneer, and her great grand dam by the Derby winner, Daniel O'Rourke. No better bred yearling was ever imported and she has been highly tried. The Taffeta colt is in the Futurity. The Tassel colt cost $1,025 at the Belle Meade dispersal sale. These youngsters are all of great promise and are to be sold only because their owner is to retire from the turf for a time. All are to be sold at auction to the highest bidder.

SCOTCH PLUME, 50 to 1, WON

Day after day and week after week I have been putting these good things over—and why not? Being a Foreman of a racing stable, and being up and doing at the break of dawn, watching the preparations of the different stables, enables me to furnish you with these two good things each day. My record at BRIGHTON BEACH demonstrates beyond a reasonable doubt that my information is a winning one.

Winner—Br. g. by Artillery—Agnes IV. (trained by S. Williams).
Went to post at 2:36. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Rian was best. Butler waited with him until in the last furlong where he came away from the others and won easily up. Chief Deputy ran a very good race for a green horse and will do to remember. Goldspink showed speed, but tired in the final strides. Henry Waite is a slow beginner and was unlucky. Kern showed early speed, but was unable to concede the weight and tired badly.
Overweights—Goldspink, 3 1/2 pounds.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Bud Embry raced Planeur to defeat in the run down the backstretch, moved up while rounding the far turn and took command without great effort in the stretch run, but Butler was easing him up at the end and almost threw the race away. Frank Mc finished with a determined rush and just got up in time to get second place from Antolee. The latter was in close quarters next to the inside rail all of the last furlong. Baffled tired. Planeur was made too much use of and tired when the pinch came.

Went to post at 3:47. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Red Raven was outrun in the first part of the race, but wore down the leaders while rounding the far turn and outgamed Carl Kahler in a sharp final drive. The latter was much used in chasing Haidee, but ran an excellent race. Reservation was outrun in the first half, but came with a great burst of speed in the stretch and would have won in a few more strides. Orfeo was ridden all over the track and ran twenty yards farther than anything else in the race. Tam o'Shanter showed but little speed. Ben Howard ran well. Miss Mae Day did not run her race and may have been short.

Red Raven, show, 4 to 5. Carl Kahler, show, 2 to 1. Reservation, show, 4 to 1. Orfeo, show, 1 to 2. Tam o'Shanter, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. f. by Handspring—St. Lucie (trained by E. W. Moore).
Went to post at 4:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Annie Robinson wore Edna Shannon down while rounding the far turn, took command easily and had everything her own way in the last furlong. Edna Shannon showed a fine turn of speed, but was used up in setting the pace and tired and hung when the pinch came. Anna Hastings ran to her best form and was driving to the limit at the end to stall off Mai Lowery. The latter ran the best race of the field, but began slowly and was crowded back in the first sixteenth, then closed a big gap and would have been third in another stride. Wreath of Ivy can do much better.

and was hard ridden in the middle furlong to stand off Stolen Moments, eventually coming away at the end like a flash and finishing easily up. He has probably been indulged since his Brighton Cup victory and was not quite keyed up. Stolen Moments was driving from the start to keep within striking distance and commenced to gain rapidly when turning for home and had Hermis driving hard to shake her off at the end, ran the best race of her career and is close to high class.
Scratched—42465 Bonniibert, 126.
